For parents

- Your child's strongest interests are Investigative, Social, Realistic. Children do best, and stay motivated, in fields that match their interests.
- The streams that fit best right now are Science – Biology group, Humanities. Treat this as guidance for a conversation, not a final decision.
- Avoid choosing a stream only because of marks, status or what friends chose. A good fit with interests matters more for long-term success.

Next steps

1. Discuss this report with your parents and school counsellor.
2. Pick your top 3 careers and find out more: what the work is like, the courses, entrance exams and colleges.
3. Try real activities linked to your interests over the next few months.
4. Take the test again after a year. Interests often become clearer by Class 10.

Instruments: O*NET Interest Profiler Short Form (U.S. Dept. of Labor; Rounds et al., 2010); Mini-IPIP (Donnellan et al., 2006). A guide for discussion, not a final decision. Scoring v2.0.0.
